AWAKENINGS

The shallow stream is not fully alive
Until it joins the rushing river.
Together they flow ever onward
Towards an awakening—the sea.

So we are half-asleep
As we relive yesterday's dreams—
Now vanished.

But when we continue our strivings
To be better persons,
To gain knowledge,
To explore new worlds,
And to find happiness

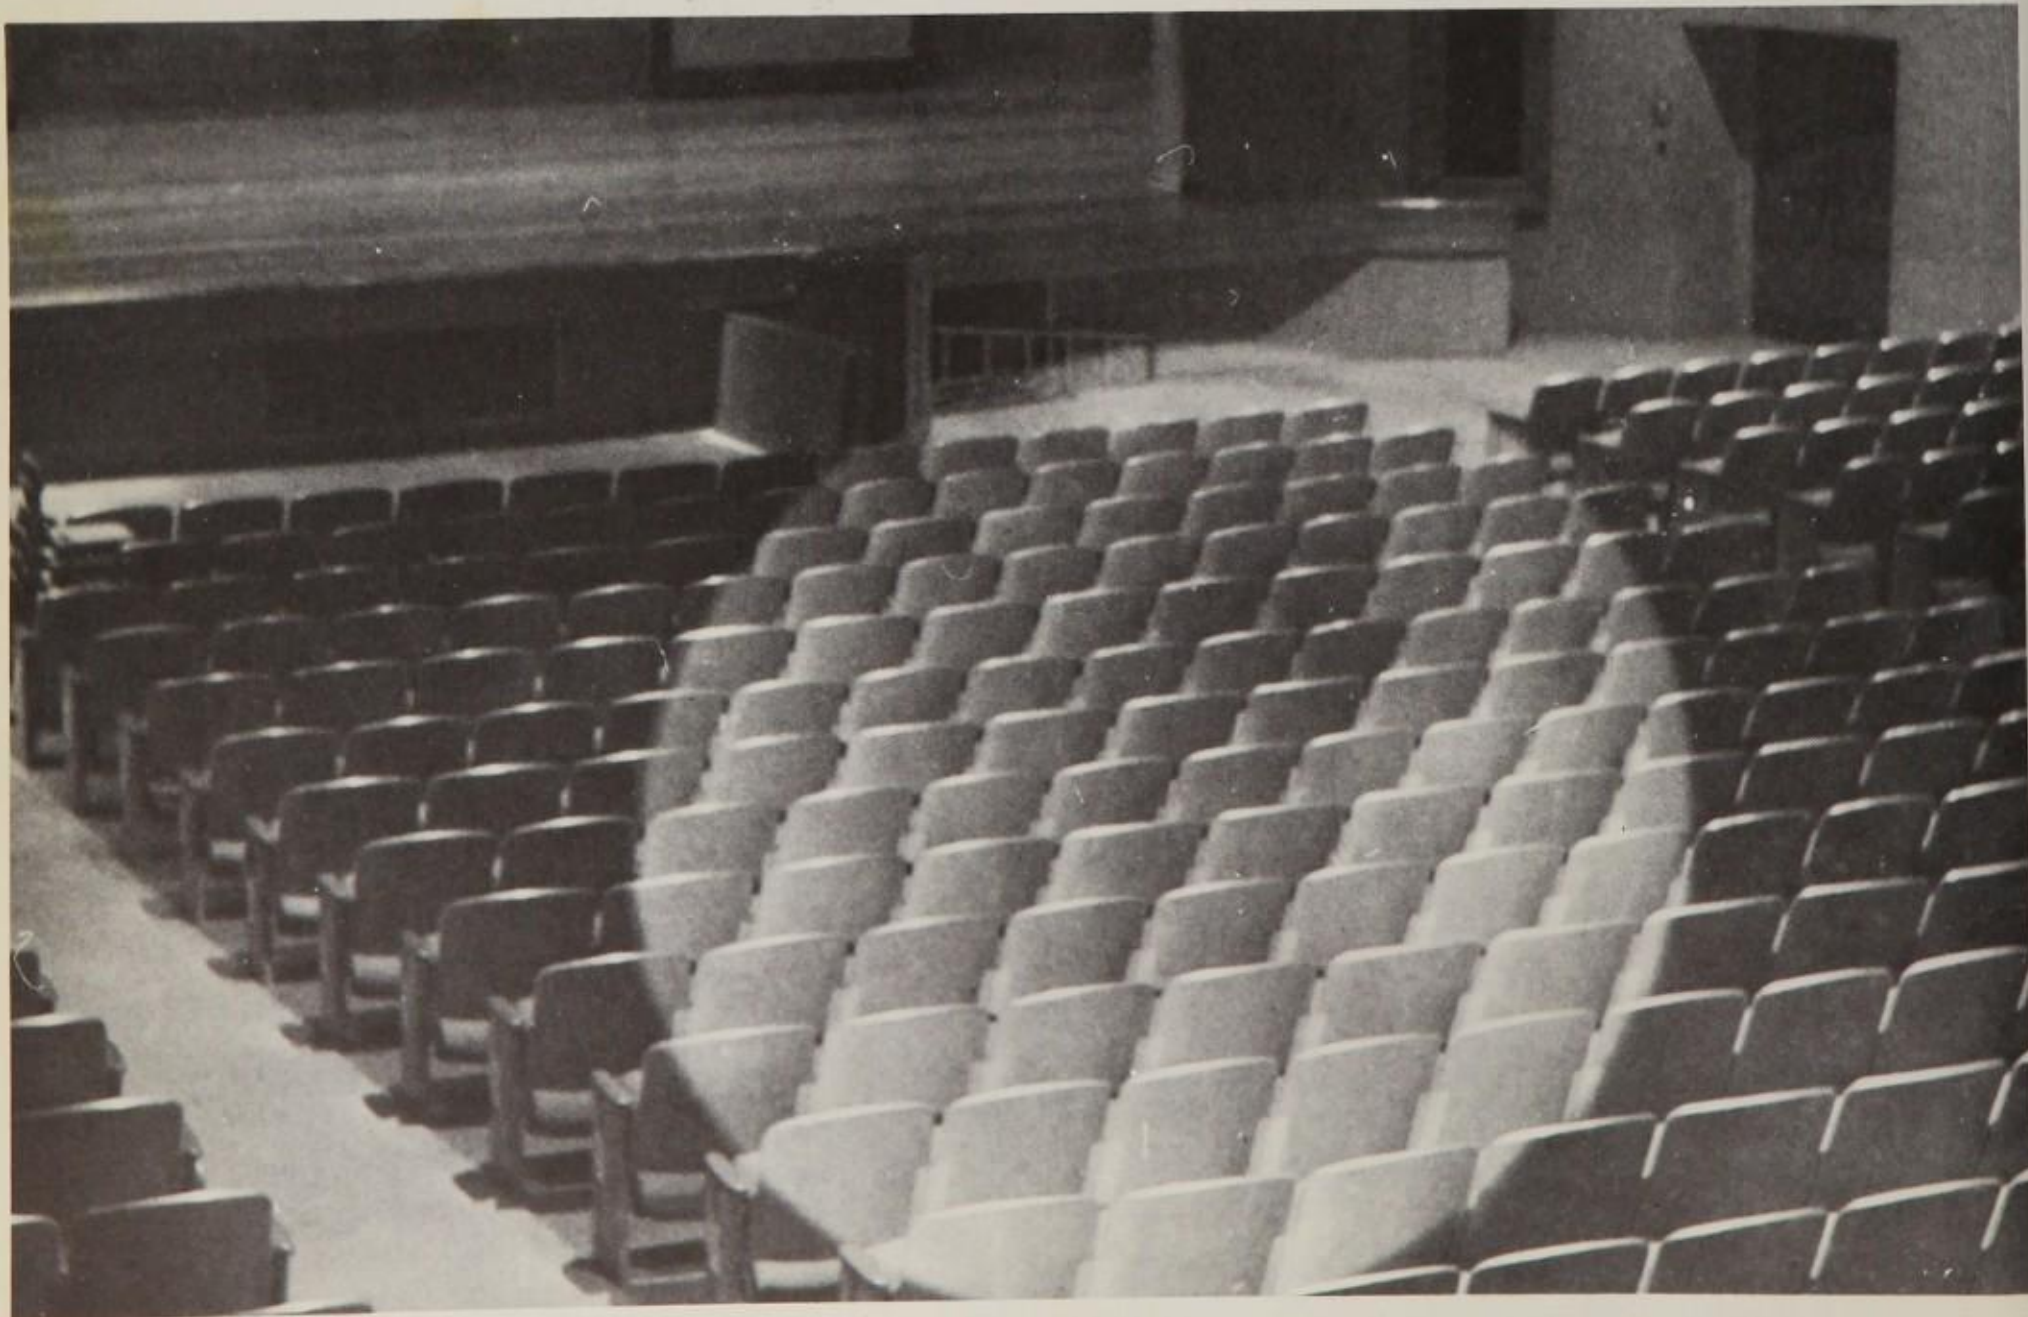

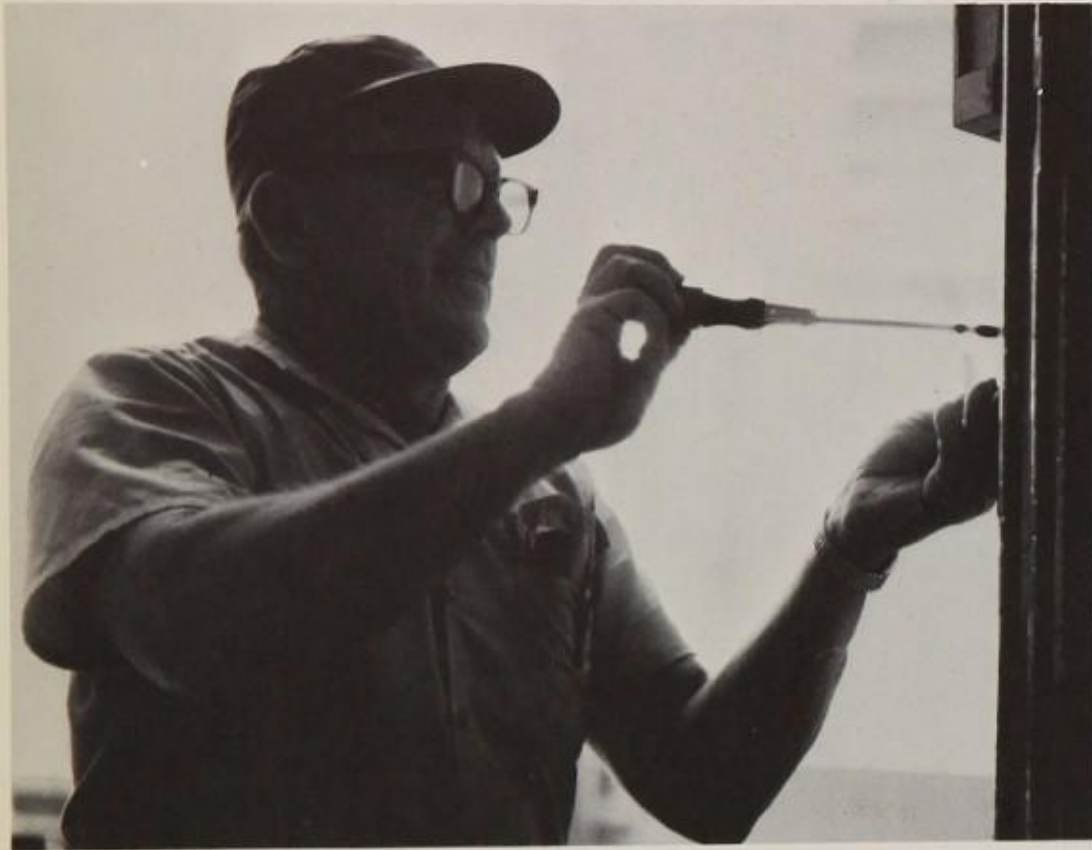

We begin to understand—
And we awaken to life.

Homecoming

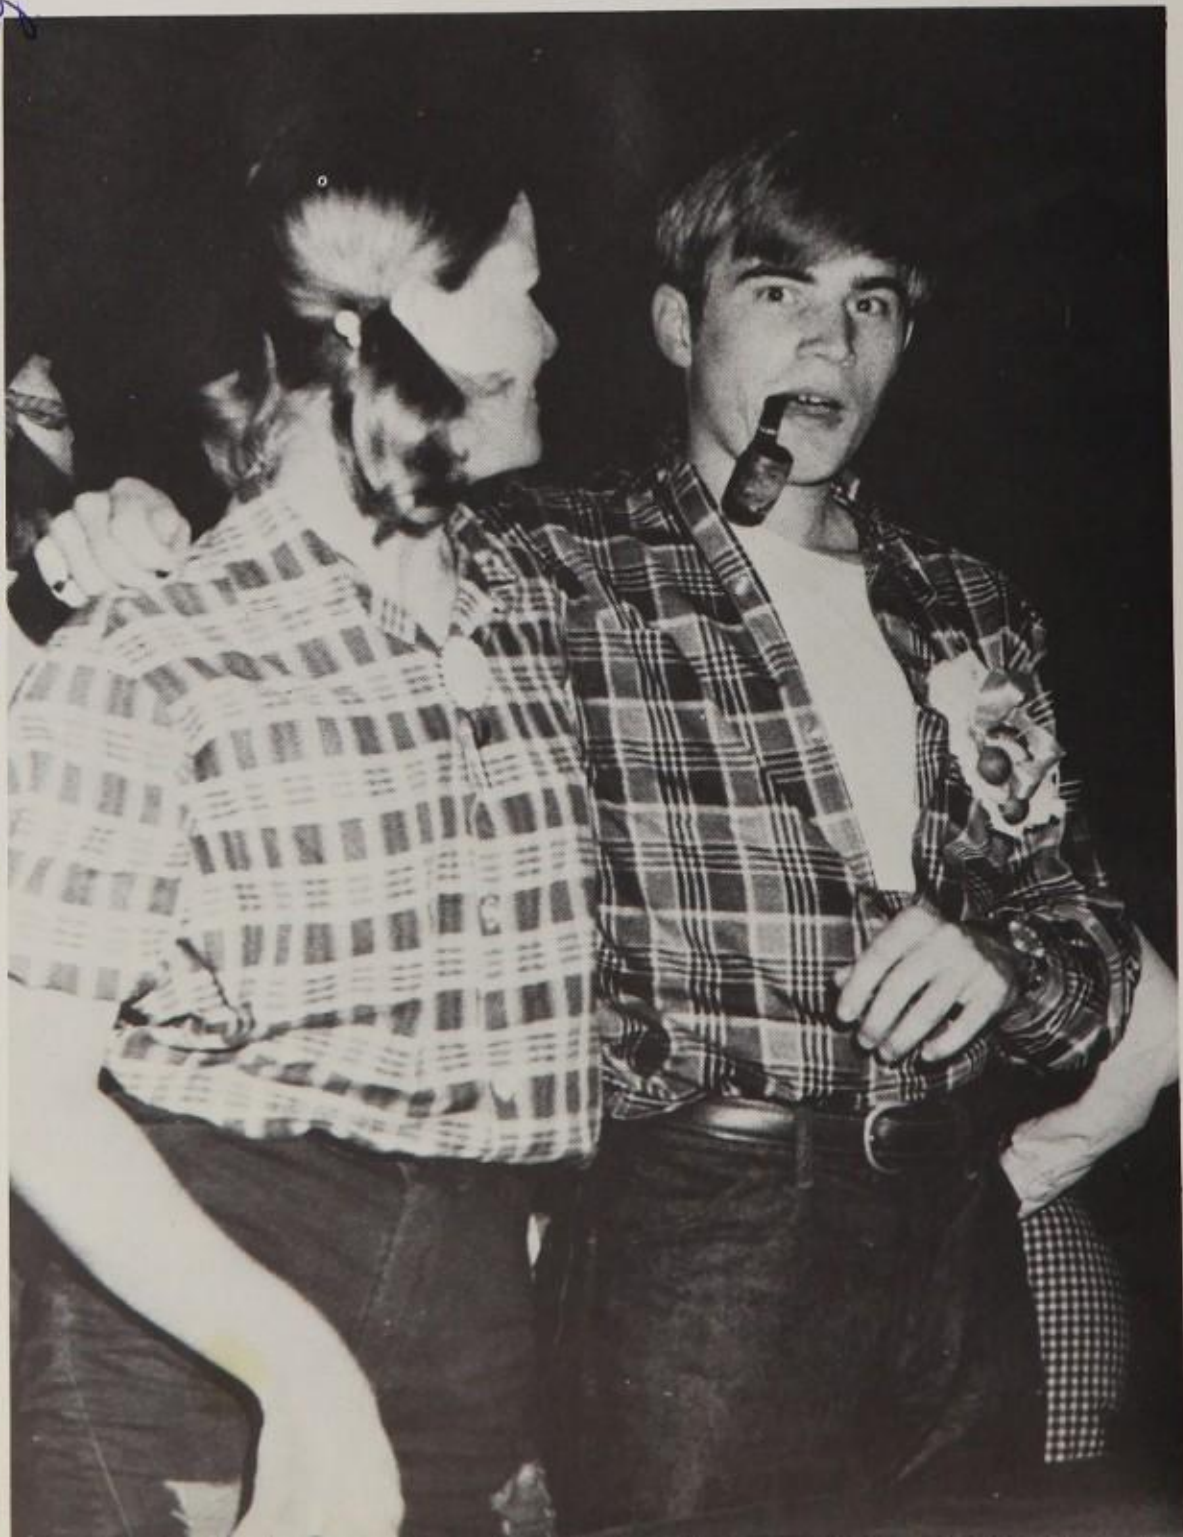

Homecoming '69 got off to a great start with the parade of floats. The Senior Class and FBLA took firsts in the two categories. The band, pom-poms, majorettes, flag twirlers and the honor guard entertained at half-time. Homecoming chairman, Craig Brown, crowned the 1969 Homecoming Queen, Joyce Lindsey. A thrilling football victory with High Point and a dance with music provided by The Spades and The Rainbows topped off the day's activities.

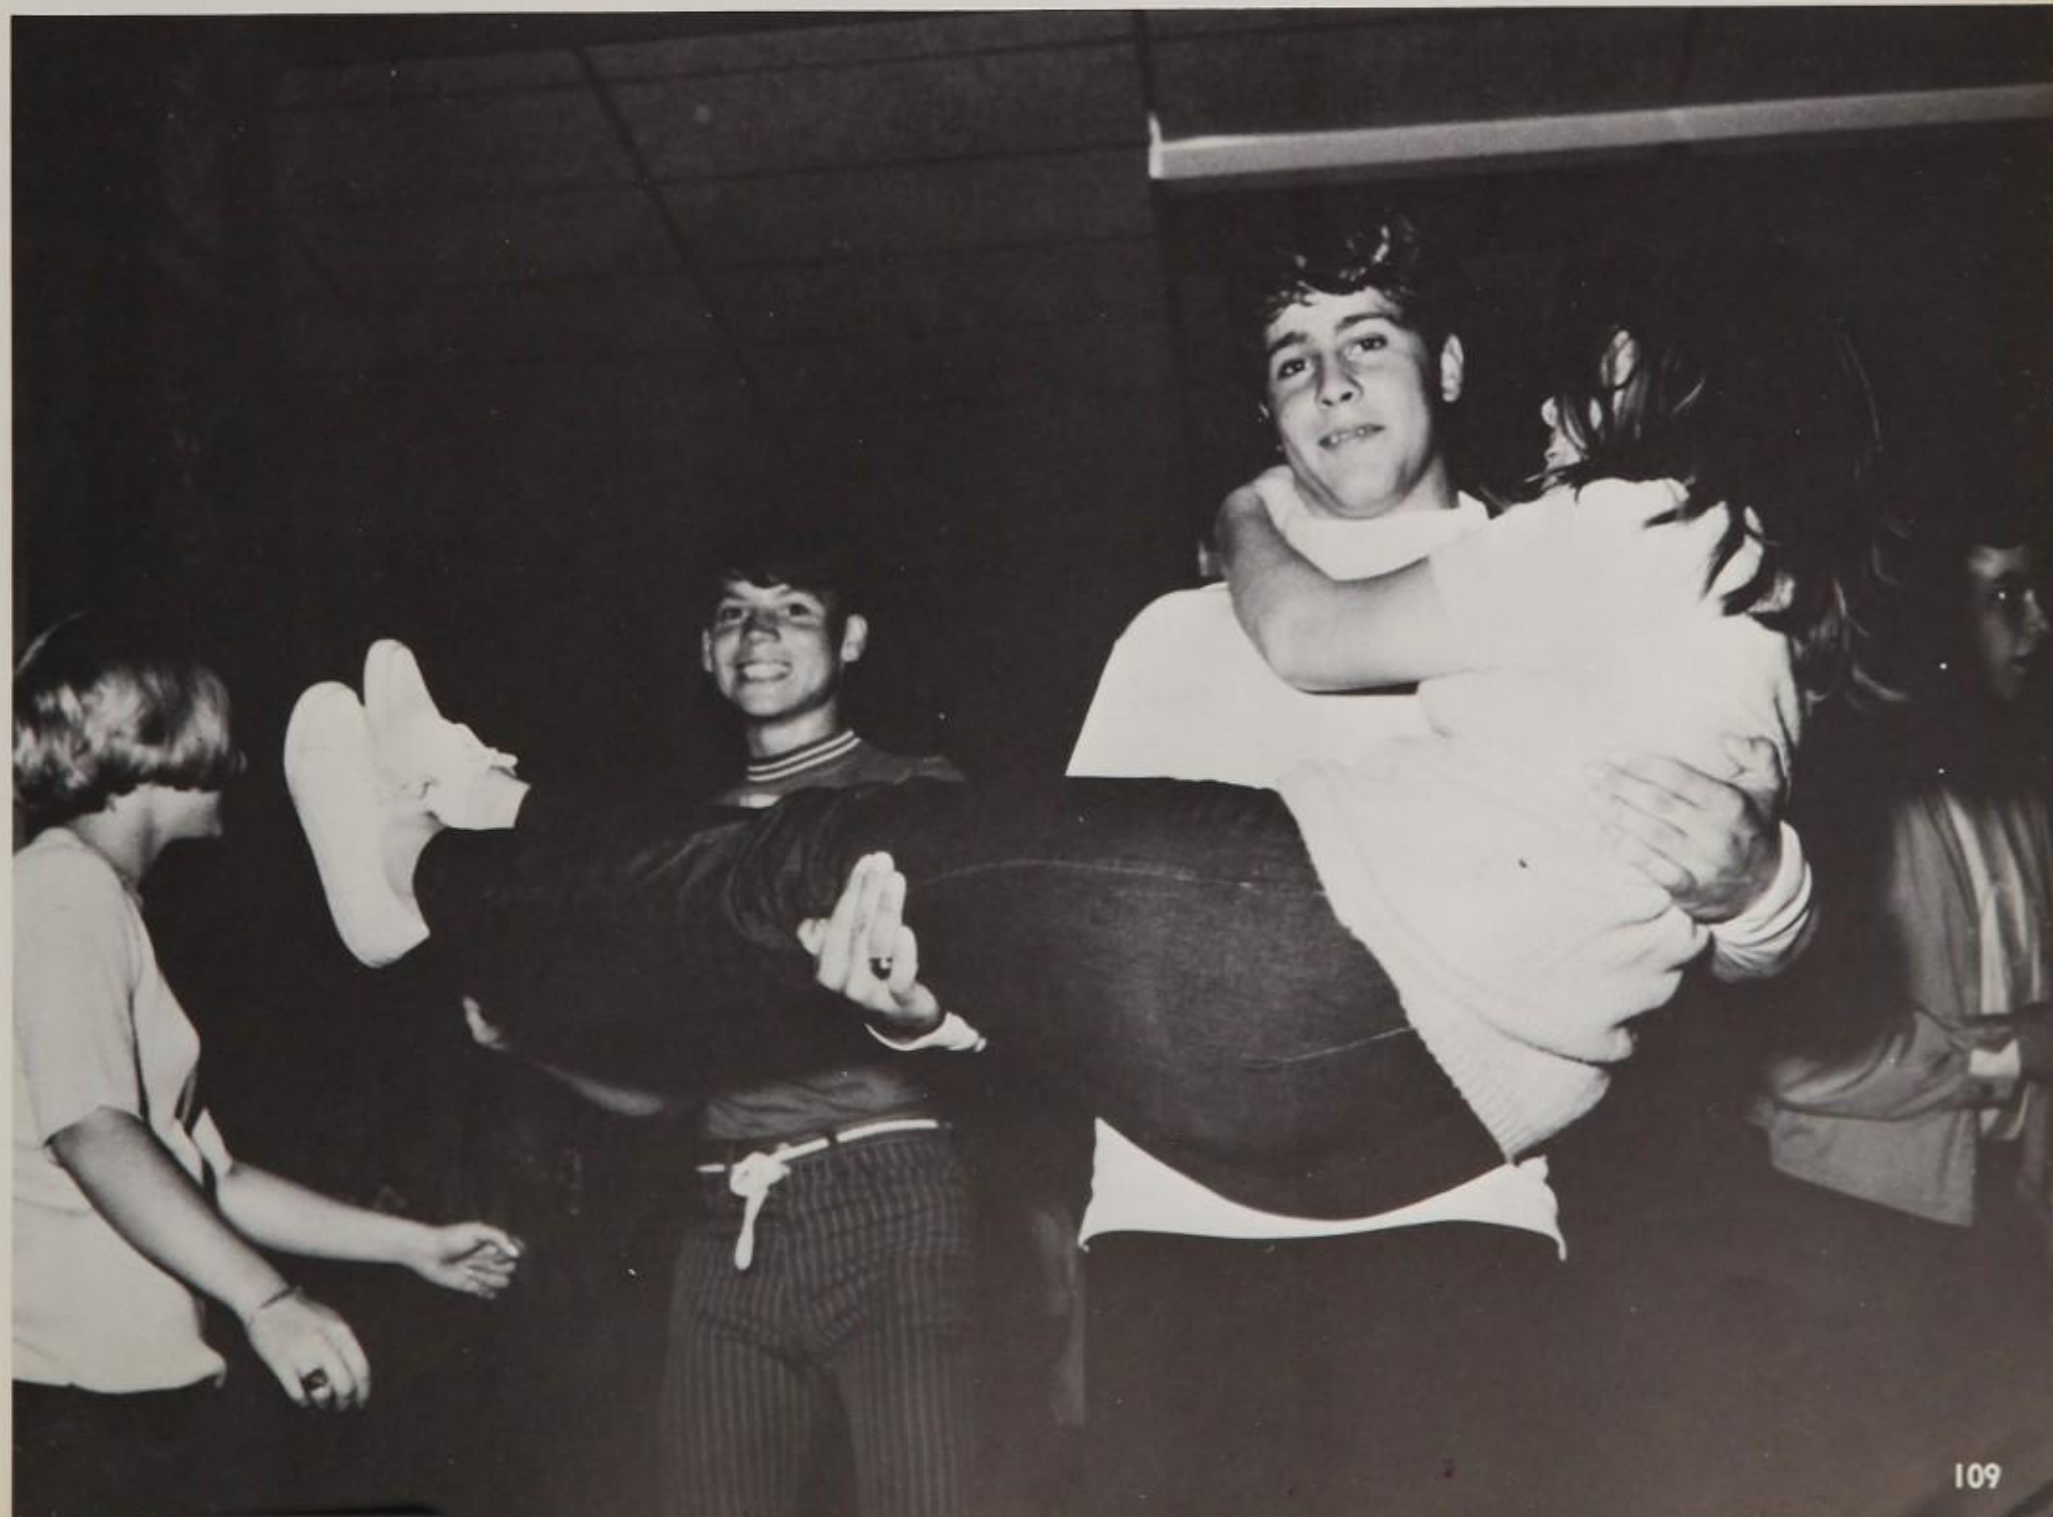

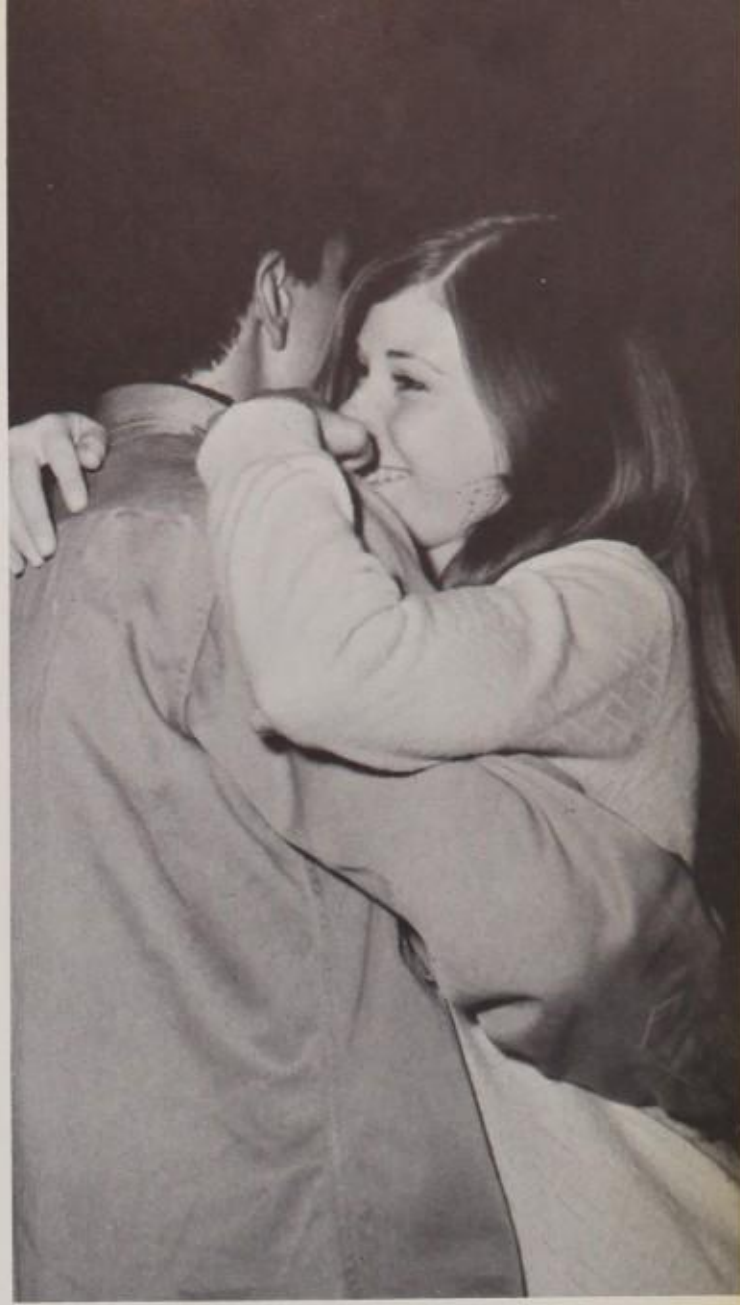

Sadie Hawkins Dance

The Sadie Hawkins Dance, sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y, gave students a chance to use their imagination in creating appropriate costumes. Members of the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y collected pennies in a competition for "Daisy Mae" and "Li'l Abner." Music was provided by the Continental Rockers and "Marryin' Sam" and "Divorcin' Dan" were special attractions of the dance.

. . . Vince Lombardi

A stingy defense and a powerful offense highlighted the Wildcats' title drive this year. Revenge was the theme as Northwestern avenged last year's losses Oxon Hill and High Point.

Along their march towards the championship, the relentless Cats completed three shutouts, including their old foe, Blandensburg. Non-league power DeMatha proved to be the Cats' only downfall in a vicious, hard-hitting contest. Northwestern rallied against Suitland for their best offensive effort of the season, gaining over six hundred yards total offense.

Most important was the season finale with High Point. Both teams were undefeated in league play. Anchoring a tough defensive line, Jim Harrell, Greg Wright, Tom Muir, and John MacFarland guided Northwestern to the county title.

Northwestern's soccer team, perennial county champions, triumphed once again by slaughtering Surrattsville in the county play-off. Two All-Metropolitans led the Wildcat booters this season, explosive offensive Lloyd Khan, and tight defense George Garcia.

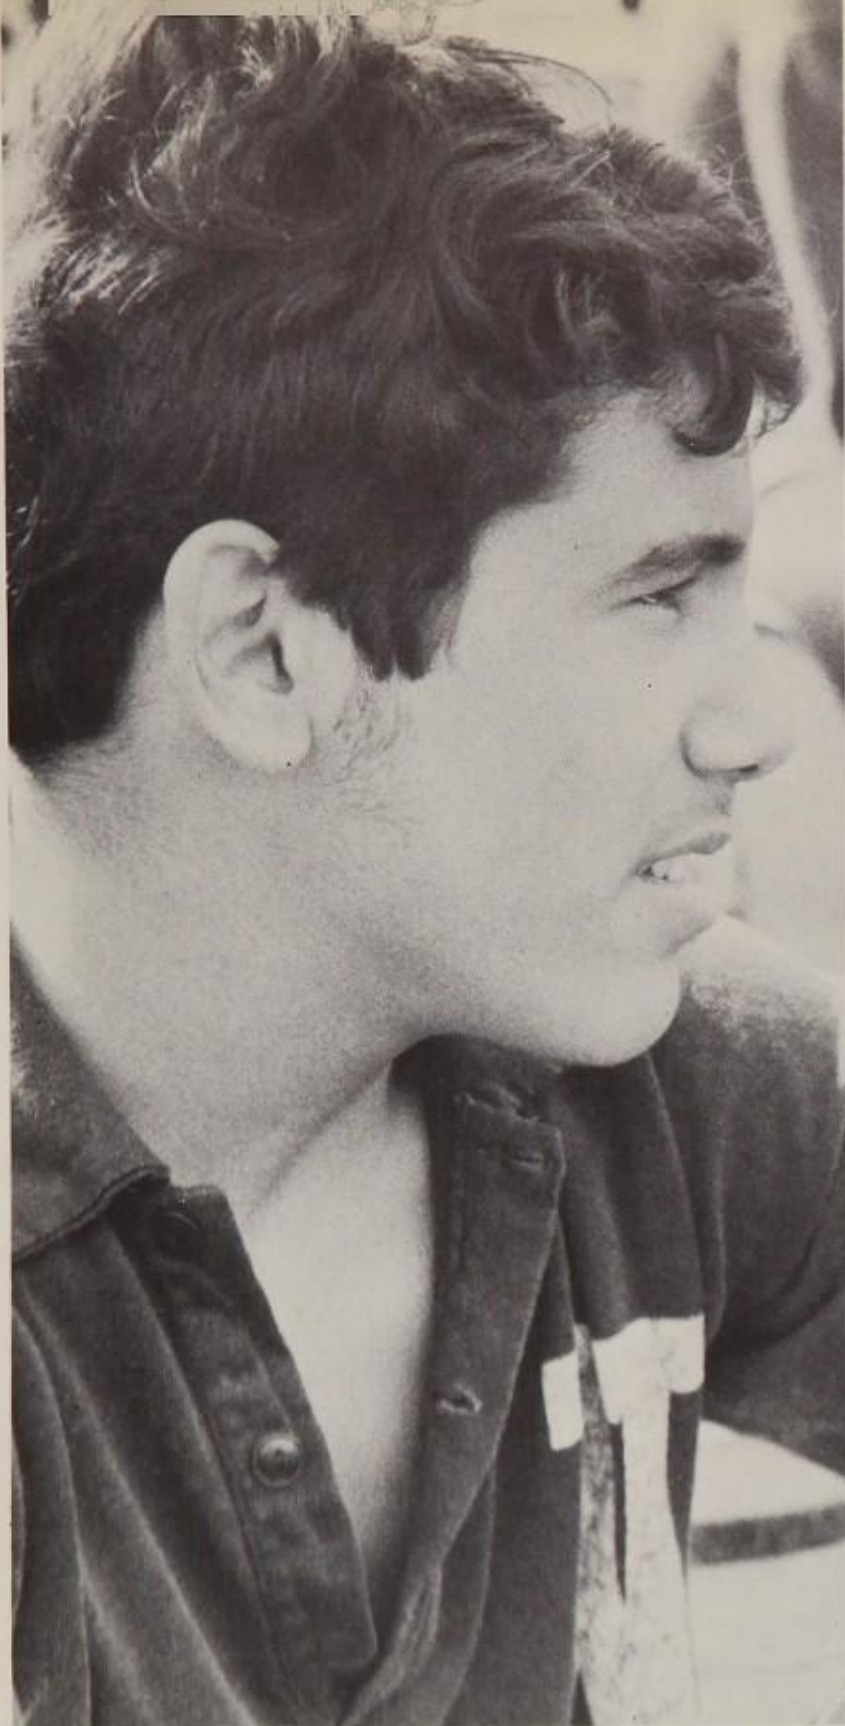

The booters started slowly, dropping two of their first three games. Bouncing back, the Wildcats were able to maintain an eight game winning streak. The regular season ended in a first place tie between Surrattsville and Northwestern.

Winning the playoff in a rout, the booters faced Walter Johnson for the bi-county championship. The opposition overcame a great Northwestern effort by scoring in the last minute of the game.

Smith. Coaches: Mr. H. Mann, Mr. T. Stickles and Mr. T. Walsh.

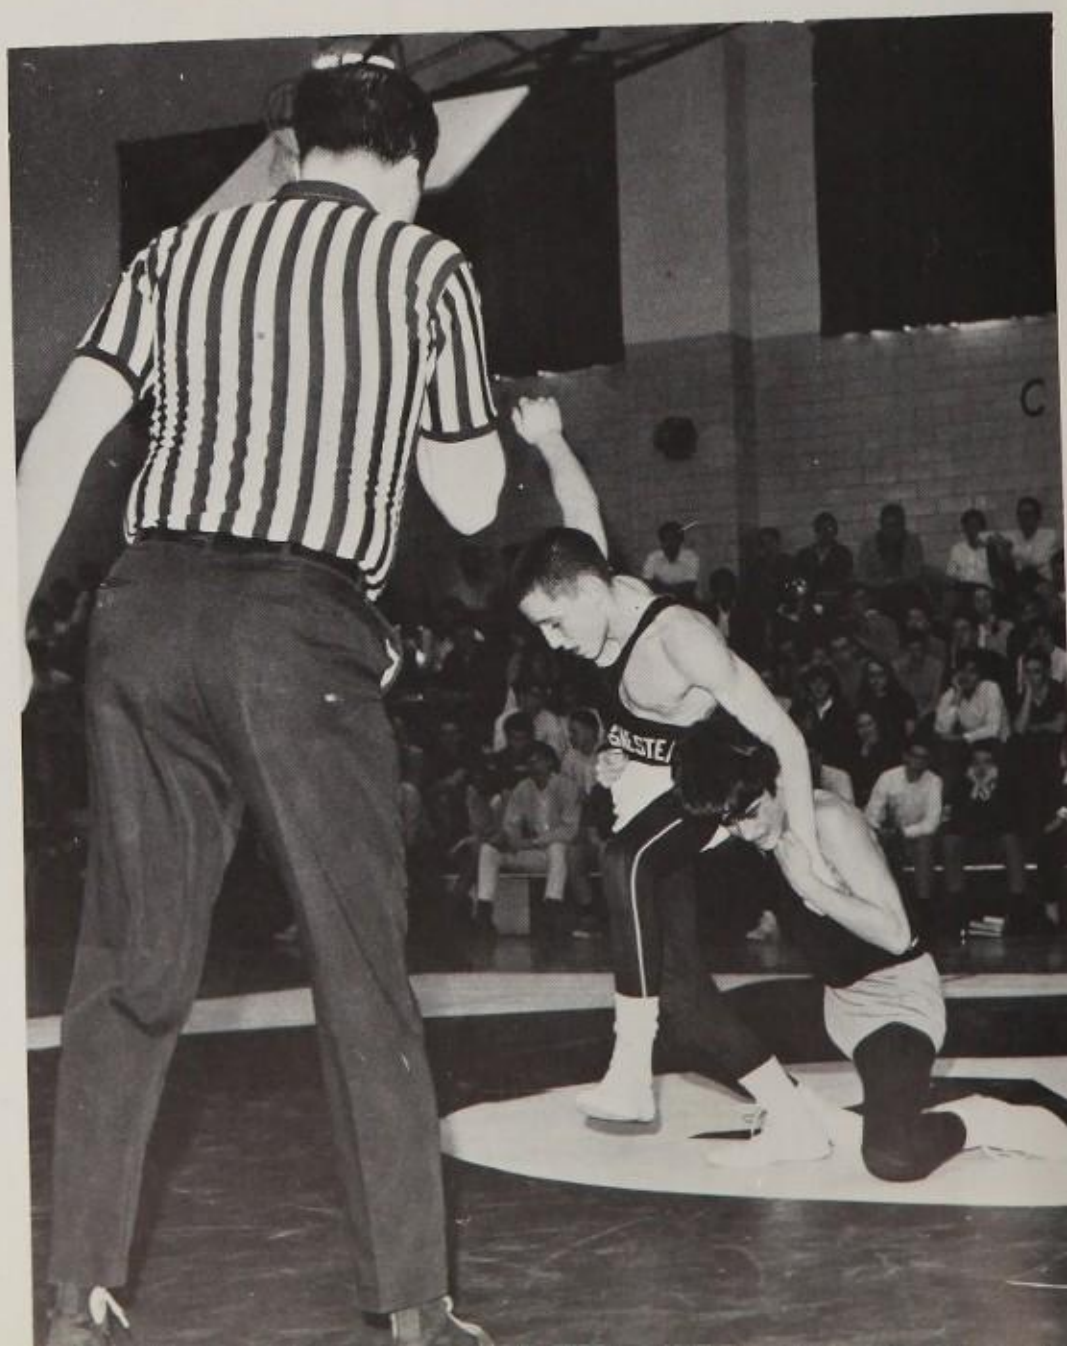

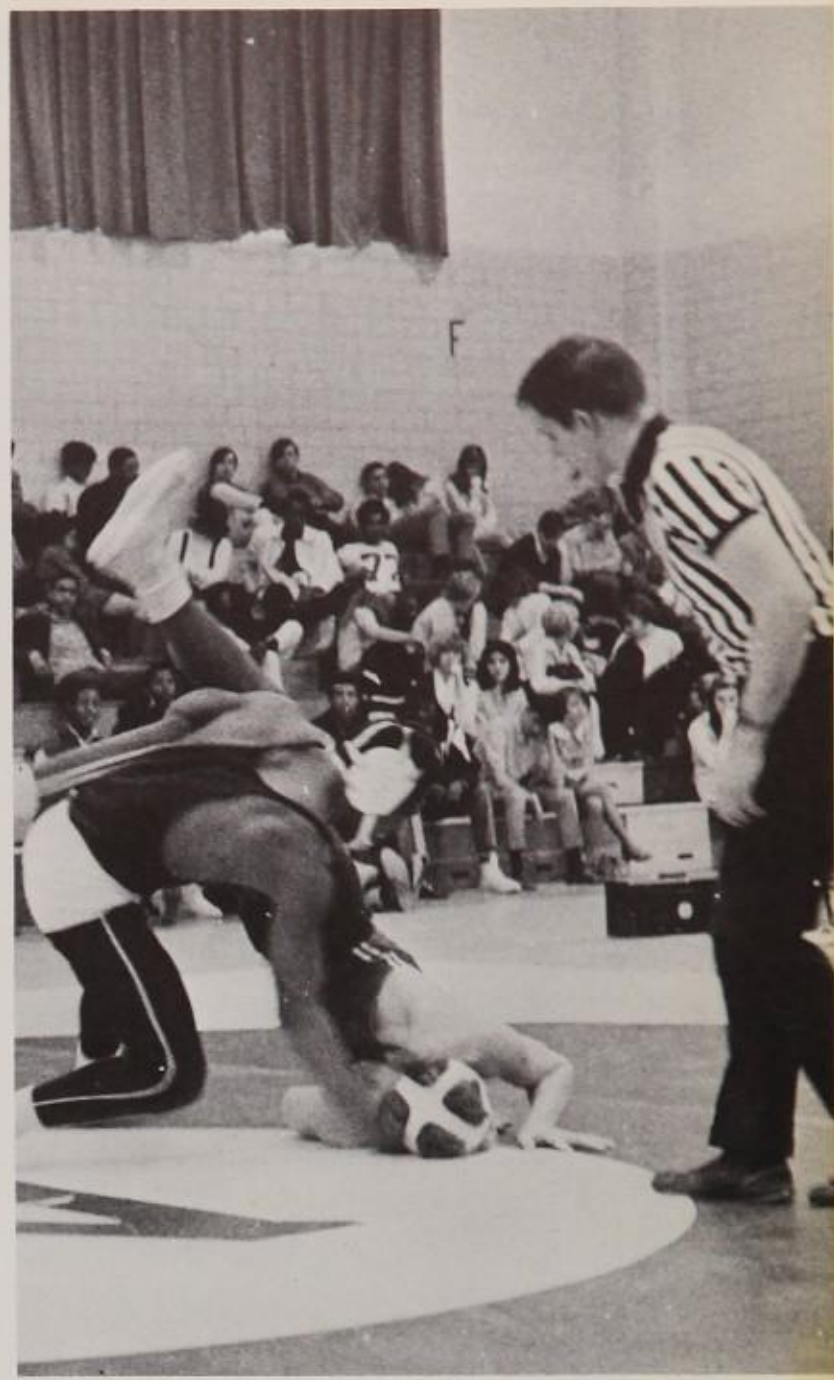

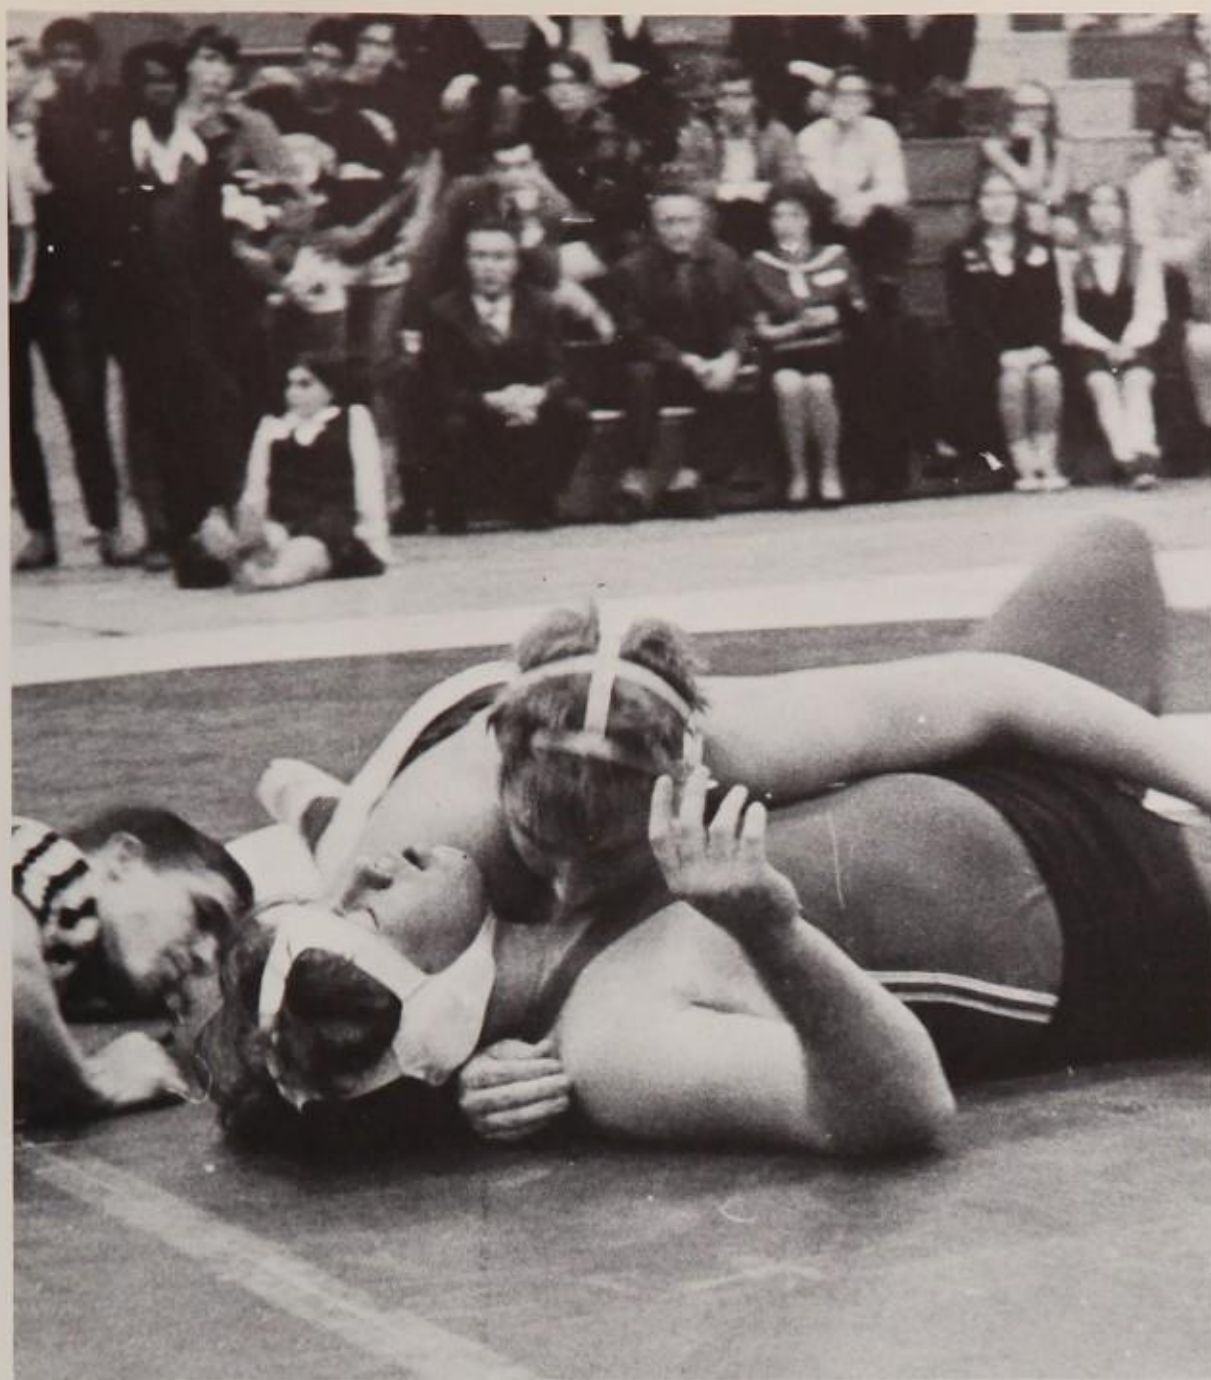

Varsity Wrestling

Hopes were high at the outset of the wrestling season; however, the loss of several lettermen dimmed prospects greatly. Stand-outs this year were Barry Oring, 98 pounds, Captain, Lester Brooks, 165 pounds, Rick Houchens, 177 pounds, and Kevin "Mad Dog" Moriarty, heavyweight.

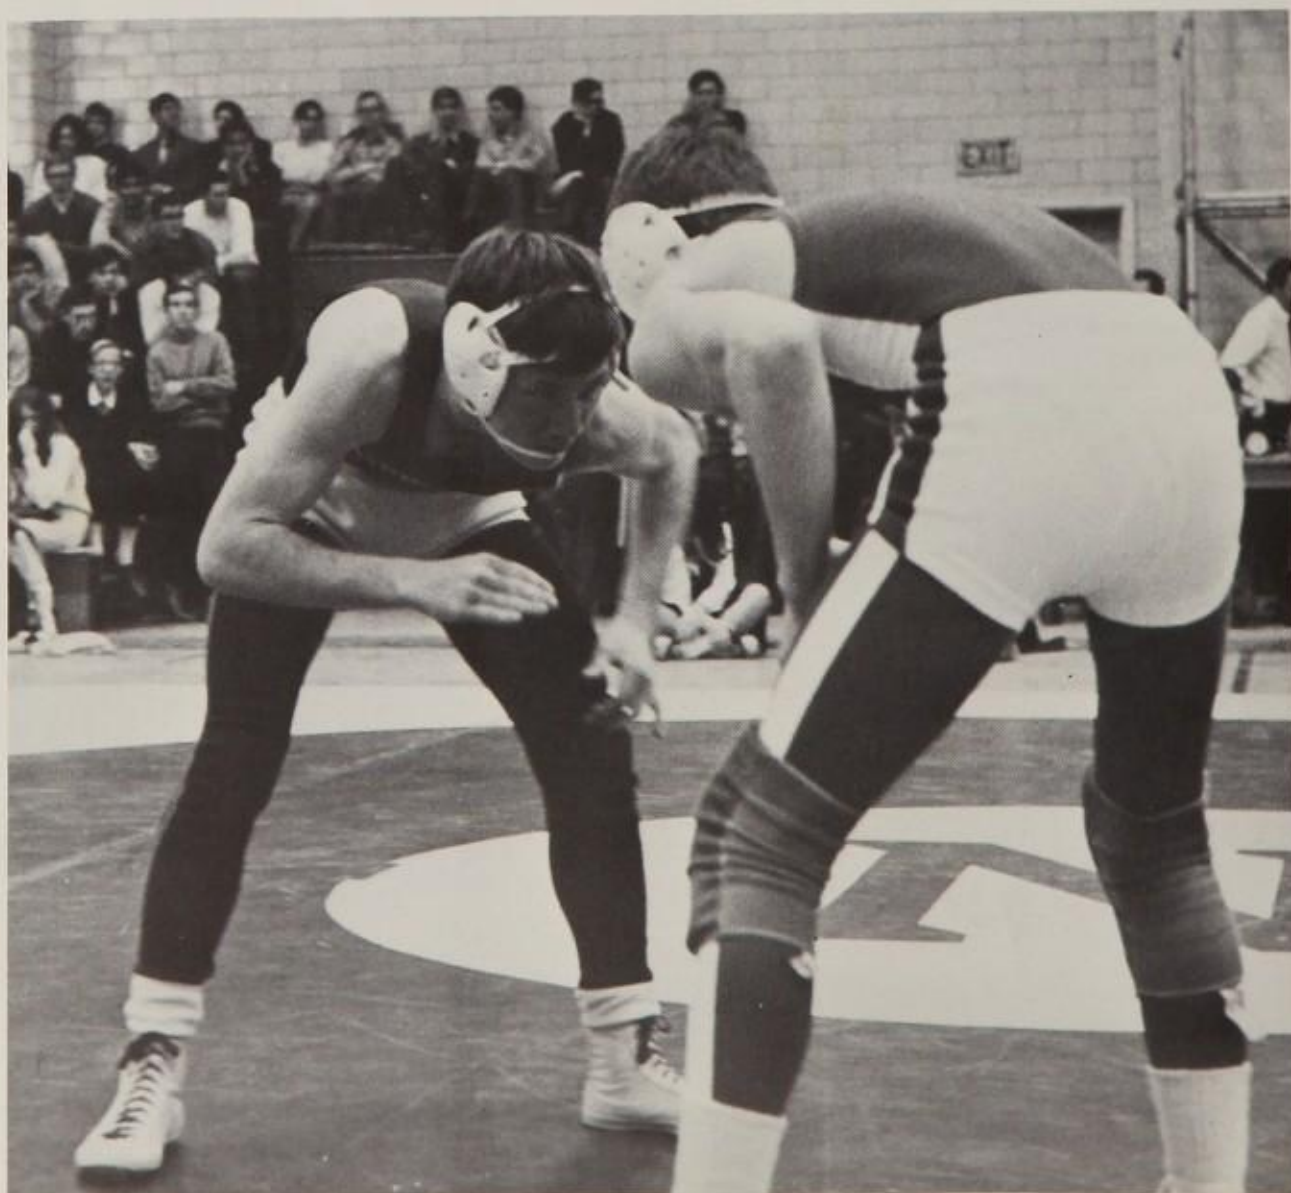

Team: G. Boseck, L. Brooks, C. Gill, C. Haynie, R. Houchens, T. Madden, T. Miller, K. Moriarty, B. Oring, T. Rimmer, H. Weiner and D. Winte. Manager: D. McMullen. Coaches: Mr. L. Bozzella and Mr. S. Gilligan.

Several Wildcat wrestlers fared well in post season tournaments. Barry Oring placed second in the county, but due to an injury was unable to compete in further tournaments. Rick Houchens placed third in the county. Kevin Moriarty placed second in the county, first in the district, and fourth in the state tournament.

Varsity Basketball

This year's Varsity Basketball Team was plagued by inconsistency. Good efforts against High Point, Surrattsville and Bladensburg were offset by poorer games against DuVal, Parkdale and Crossland. The season was interrupted by the coaches' boycott against the Board of Education. Highlights of the season were the performances of seniors Rick Fleshman and Tom Tipton, junior Tyrone Boatwright, and sophomores John Bowie and Calvin Gross.

The 1969-1970 Junior Varsity Basketball Team was one of the best ever and promises great hope for next year. 1952 — In Memoriam — 1969

We, the students of Northwestern, remember Debbie Hicks as a wonderful person and an active student. She was the girl with the quick smile and the saucy comeback. Debbie had a keen understanding of people, and a great ability to get along with them. She loved nature and horseback riding. Debbie is most remembered for her great courage, and that rare quality which never let others feel sorry for her in spite of her hardship.

Community

"The shallow stream is not fully alive
 Until it joins the rushing river.
 Together they flow ever onward
 Towards an awakening—the sea.
 We come from many neighborhoods,
 Bringing our hopes to Northwestern.
 Through working together
 We create our community—
 Understanding.

The annual fashion show, sponsored by the National Honor Society, featured the latest spring and summer styles. The show was put on in conjunction with the Hecht Company teen board and music was provided by The Clique.

Art Exhibit

Northwestern art students demonstrated their creative skills at Prince George's Plaza. The area exhibit was sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Science Fair

Sophomore Lauralee Rappleye's "Which Whelk is Which Whelk? Part II" won First Grand Award at the Nineteenth Annual Science Fair. Mrs. Harriet Prince and the Science Club sponsored the awakening. Linda East, Greg Kennedy, Lauralee Rappleye, Mike Leser, and Linda Coffman placed in the area fair.

NHS Induction

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of this Society to which I have been elected, striving in every way by word and deed to make its ideals the ideals of my life." This spring forty-six juniors and seniors were inducted into National Honor Society.

Senior Prom

Seniors were again fortunate to celebrate their Prom at magnificent Montgomery Mall. The nostalgic theme "Lingering Shadows" symbolized the Seniors' memories of three years at Northwestern. Music was provided by The Magic Touch.

West Side Story

"Something's Coming!" expressed the sentiments of the senior players, dancers, singers, and production crew for nine hectic weeks. Then came "Tonight." For two weekends Northwestern's stage became a New York turf and the seniors were "West Side Story."

Junior Ring Dance

Gaterz Old Lady helped the juniors celebrate their newly gained senior status. It was a time for turning rings, and for turning to summer plans.

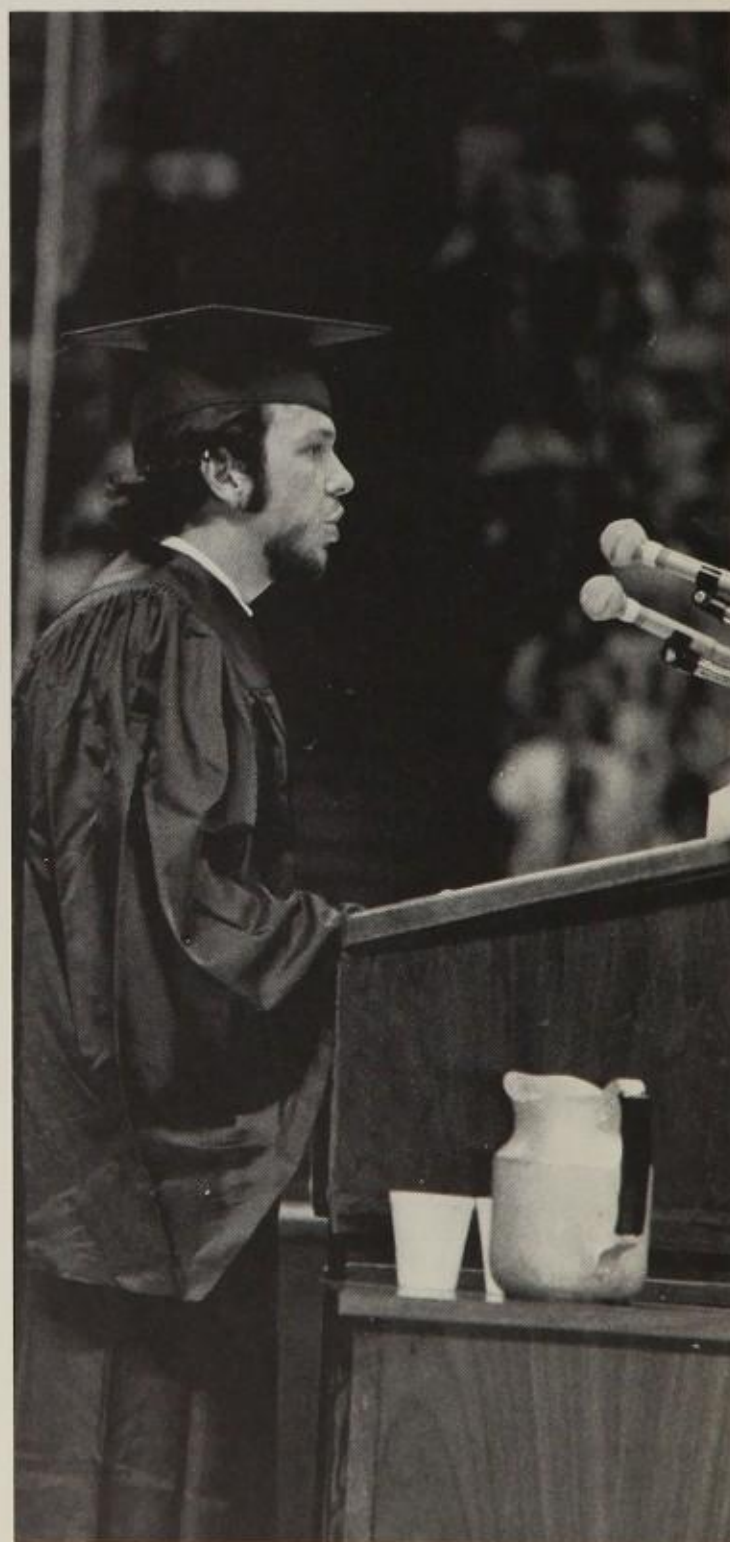

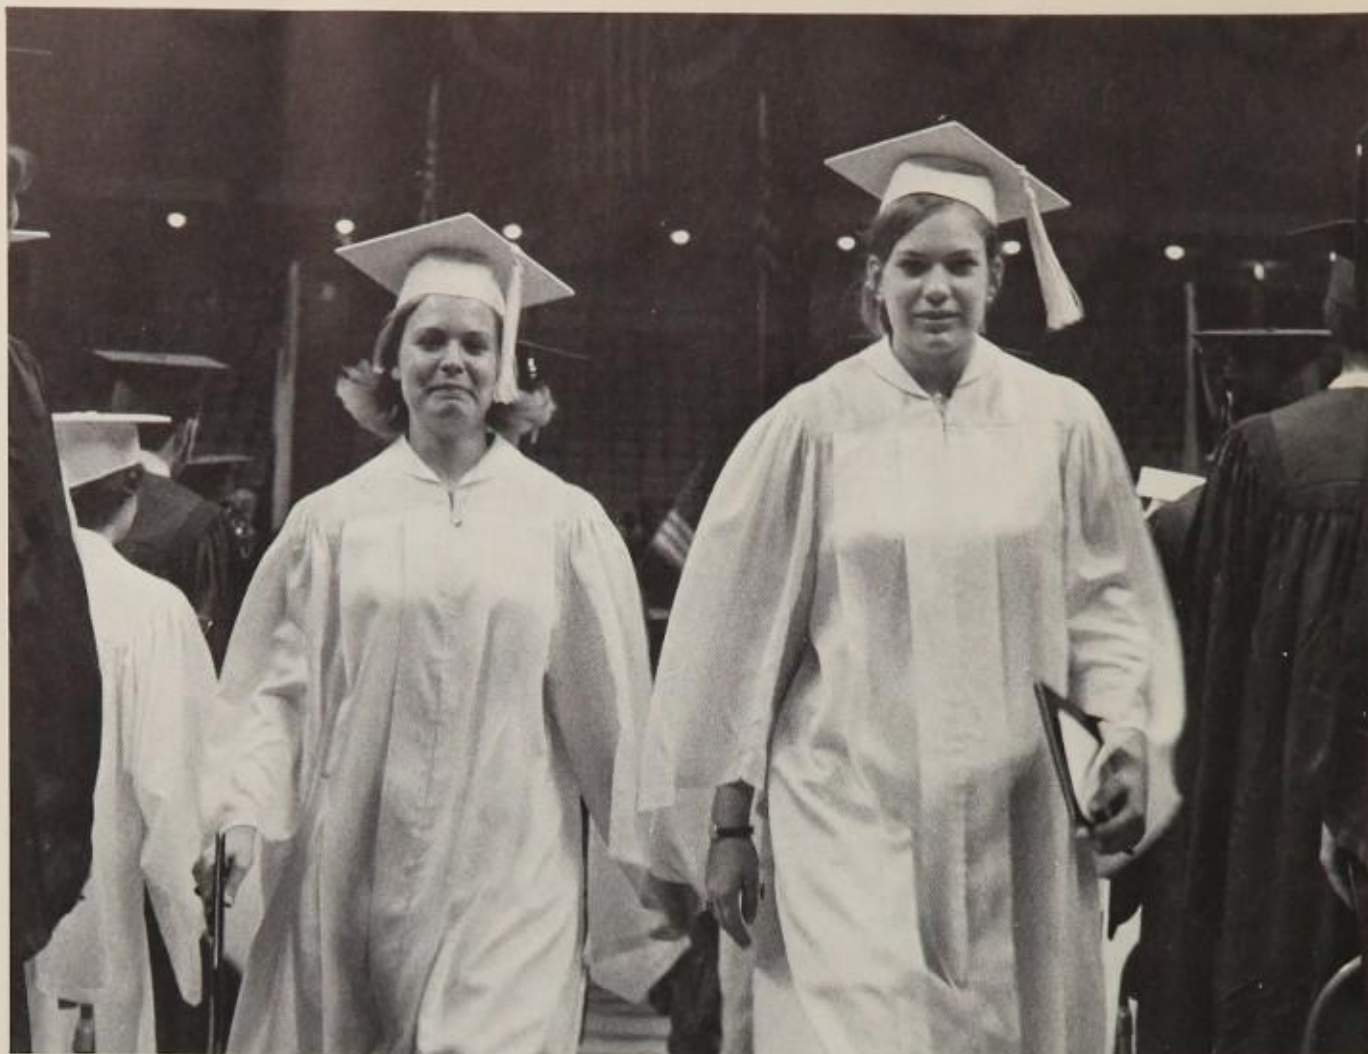

Graduation Dance

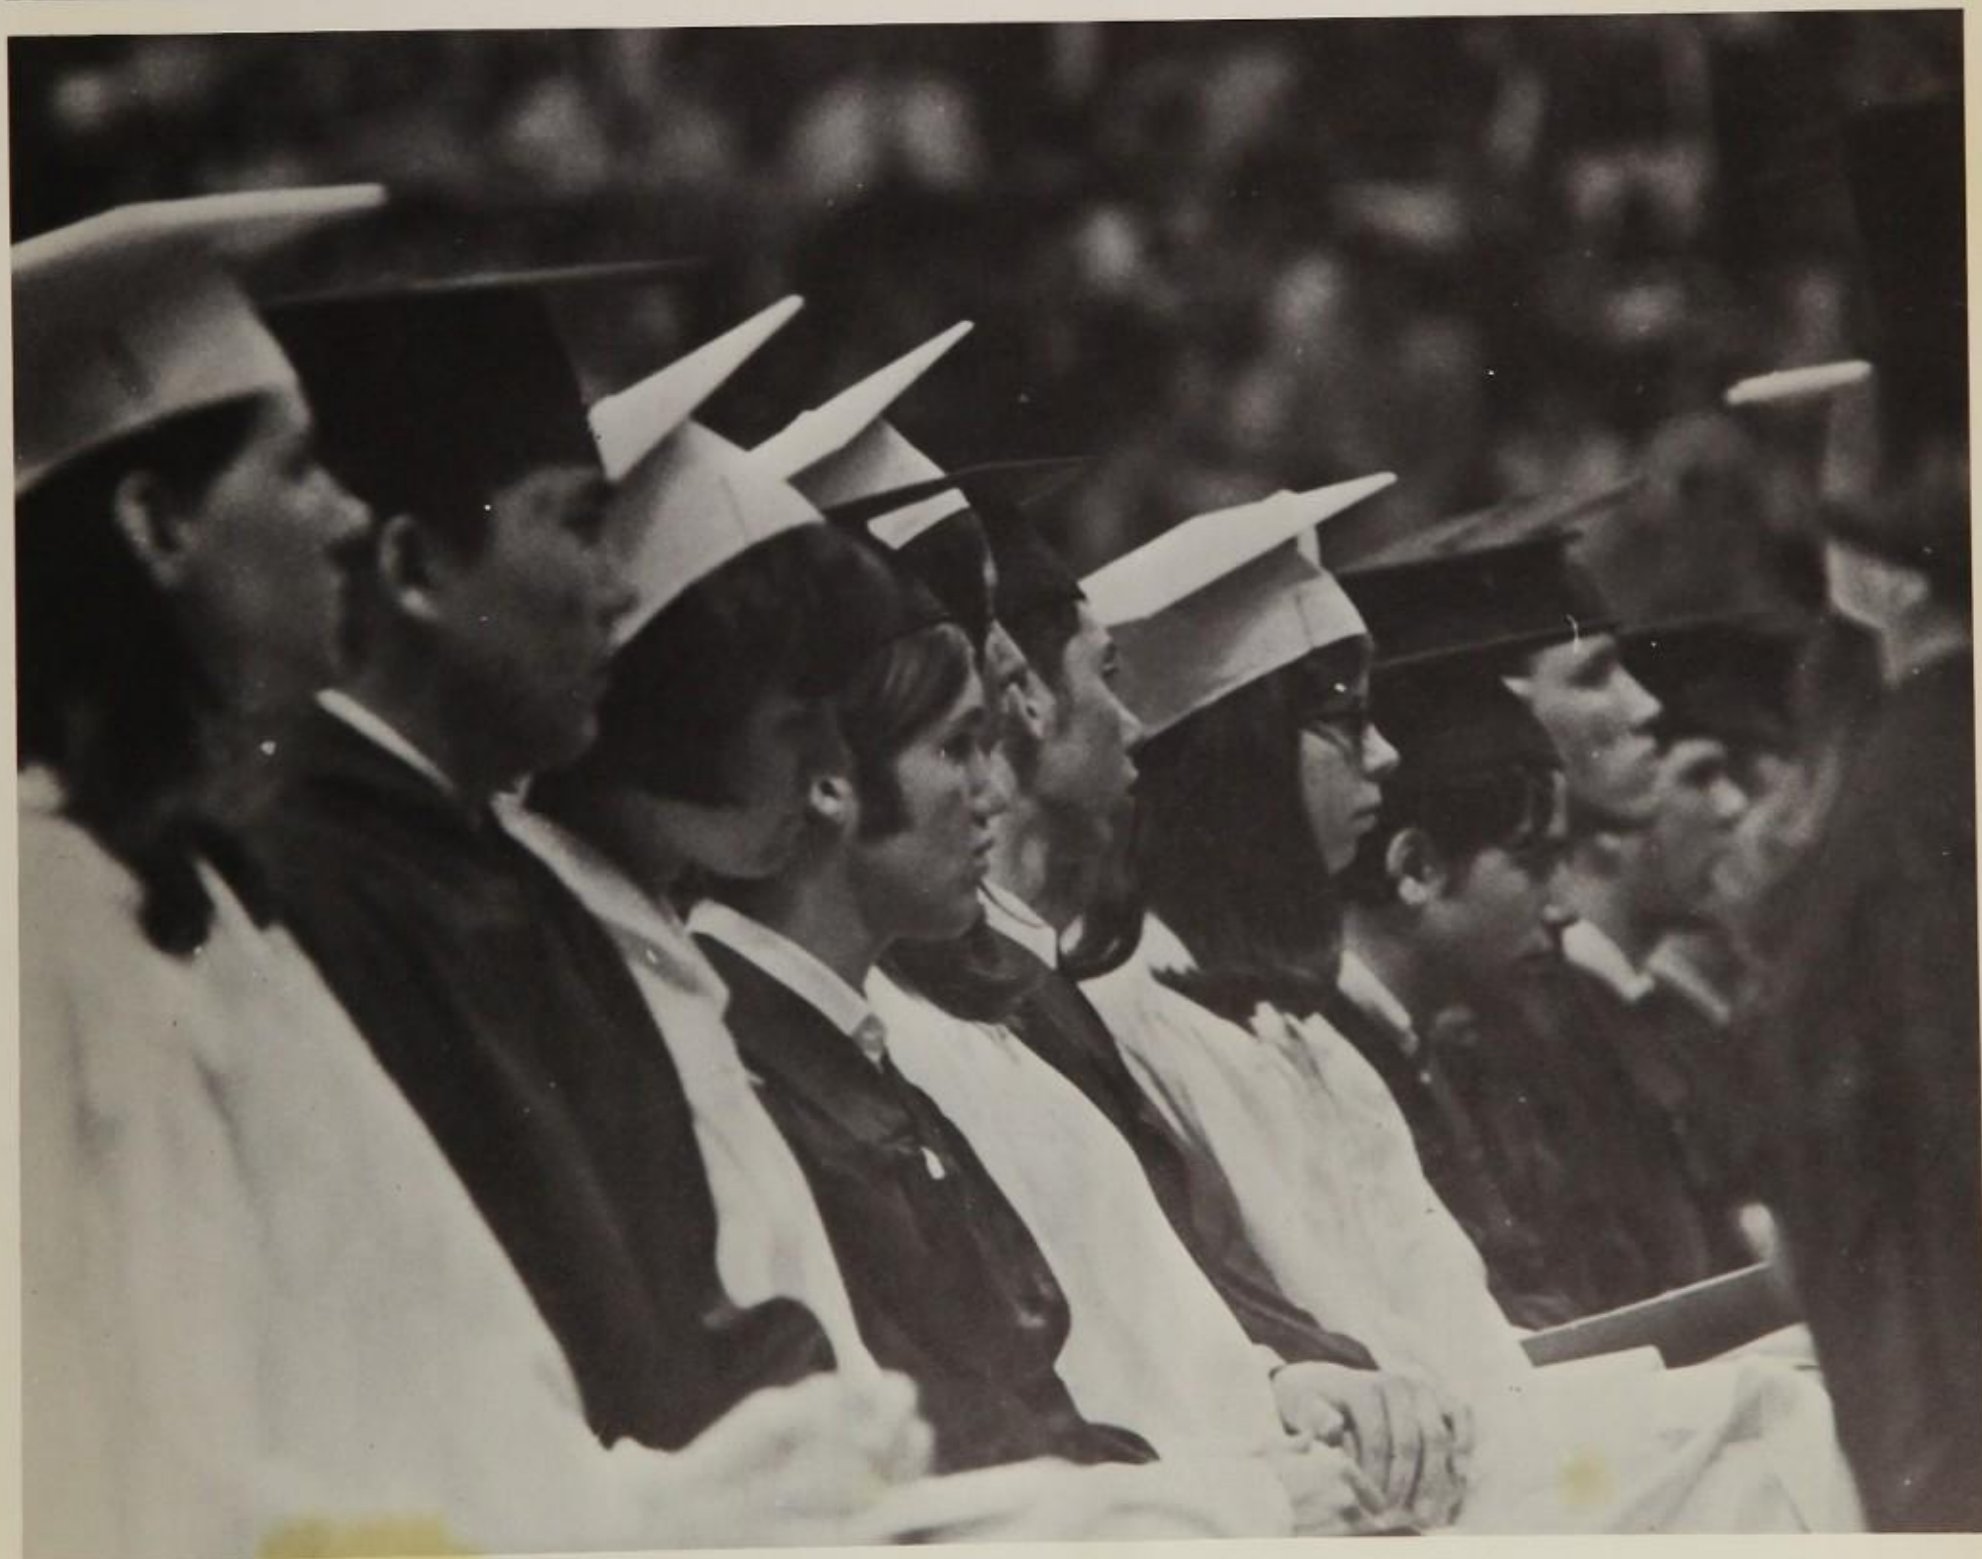

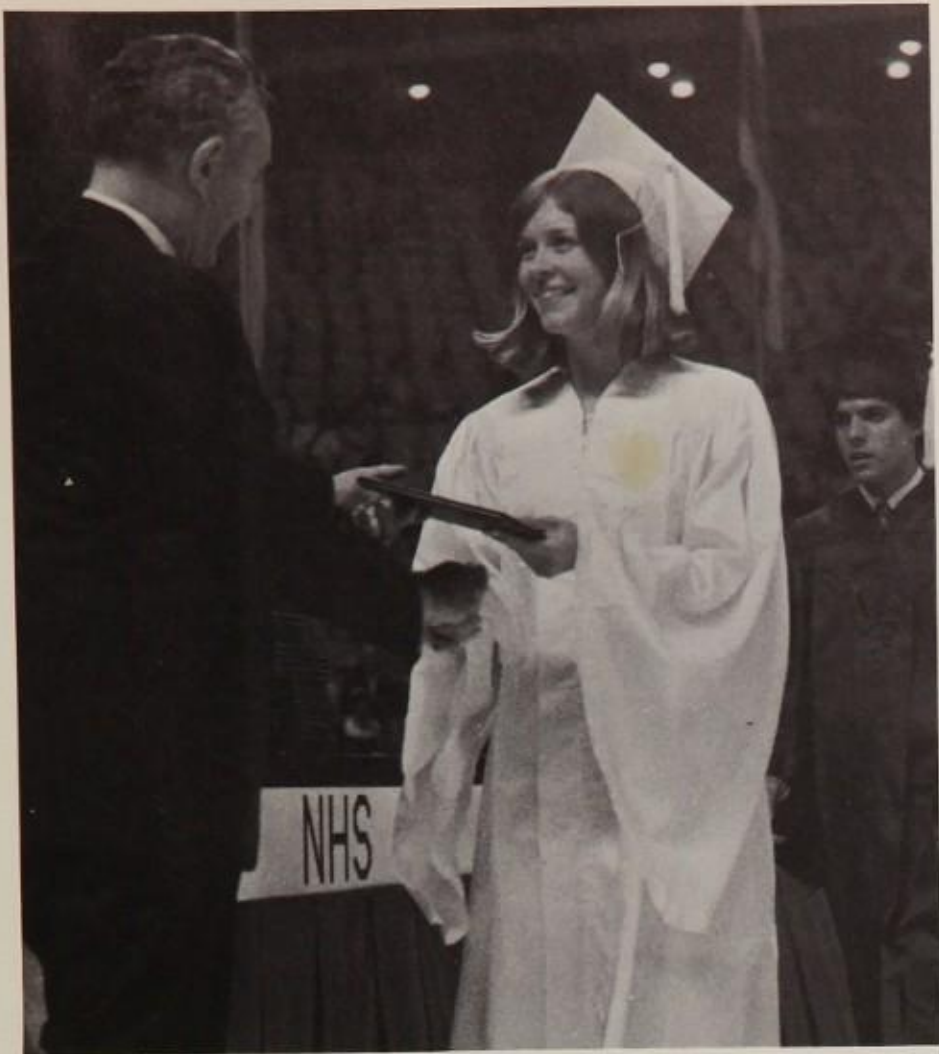

"Good luck and best wishes" and "Remember me always" wrote the seniors as they signed yearbooks at their last dance. Liberation provided music for the bittersweet happening.

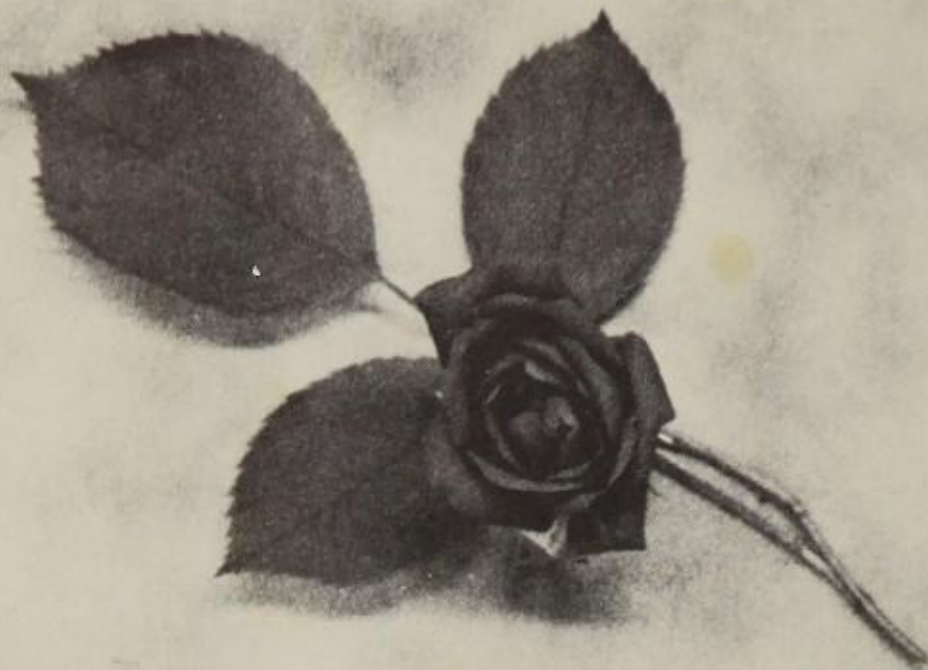

Graduation

The finale—Graduation, 1970. After the trials and tribulations of twelve long, hard year the Class of '70 has reached its turning point. As each student receives his diploma he awakens to the world around him—to the sadness, the happiness, and the attainment of goals for each and every individual.

Sincerely,
SUE ANN GALLAGHER
